

Eastern Maine Pagan Pride Association presents:

BACCHANALIAN BALL 2012

“BACCHANALIAN DISCO BALL”

Saturday, February 18th from 6-10PM at the Hampden VFW Hall, 41 Canoe Club Road, Hampden, ME

Bacchanalia is an ancient festival celebrating the Greek God, Bacchus – the God of wine, revelry, and merriment. Our Bacchanalian Ball will feature live music for dancing; a chocolate buffet; a home-brewed mead, wine, and beer tasting; and a live auction of wonderful crafts and services, hosted by Bacchus himself. Home-brewers are welcome to submit their best brews for tasting; a prize will be awarded to the crowd favorite.

The theme is Disco Ball! Interpretive formal dress is requested; faerie wings, afros, masks, sequined jump suits, prom/formal wear, and kilts are just fine. Suggested donation is $5 per person. 21+ ONLY, please!

For an ongoing list of donations and delicacies, please visit our website: www.emppa.org, or check out our group on Facebook: Eastern Maine Pagan Pride Association. To donate to the auction, please e-mail emeraldragonfly@emppa.org. To have your home-brew available for the tasting, please e-mail coyotewalkingtree@emppa.org.

All proceeds from the event benefit the Eastern Maine Pagan Pride Association, a non-profit organization dedicated to increasing public understanding and awareness of alternate faiths and enhancing connections between Pagans and Pagan organizations in Eastern Maine. For more information, please visit www.emppa.org or contact Keri: coyotewalkingtree@emppa.org, Teresa: reshet@emppa.org, Michele: emeraldragonfly@emppa.org, or Merlin: lustydragon@emppa.org